Demonstrating and Communicating Value

Keep adjusting those sails and moving forward
- we're stronger together.
